RESIGNATION BY ERWIN MUZZLED

Presented Yesterday, Not to Be Read Until March 31

CITES WADE NOTE
Document to Council Tells Reasons for Quitting

Formal resignation of City Engineer M. C. Erwin, tendered the city council yesterday afternoon, will probably not be acted upon by the commission until March 31.

The resignation, a copy of which was given a News reporter yesterday afternoon, was not mentioned by the council, and it is understood the matter will not be brought up by the city until the date of its effect, which is mentioned in the resignation letter as "March 31."

Erwin Cause, Claims
Erwin, between himself and Commissioner B. J. Wade is mentioned by Engineer Erwin as one of the reasons prompting his action, while he sets forth in his letter that he cannot longer refuse a better position offered him and which will require his entire time.

Mr. Erwin is the third engineer to leave under the present administration. He has been in office 13 months.

His letter of resignation addressed to the commission follows:
Effective March 31.

"I beg to hand you herewith my resignation as city engineer and harbor master, effective March 31, 1933. I have delayed this resignation for some time on account of the agitation of Commissioner Wade, until the people of Port Arthur might have an opportunity to determine whether or not there were any grounds for my resignation; but that time has now elapsed, and the best evidence that there were no grounds is that there has been nothing further done. I did not desire to quit under fire, and (Turn to Page 2, Column 2)

Two Asylum Inmates Burn to Death When Hospital Is Destroyed
DETROIT, Mich., March 27.—Two women inmates of the asylum at Eloise, about 13 miles from here, were burned to death when fire destroyed a building, woman's psychopathic ward here.

The charred bodies were discovered by firemen after the flames had been extinguished. It was believed that all the women inmates had been saved. About 250 women were housed in the building, which was totally destroyed.

PARK BASEBALL PLAN ENDORSED
C. of C. Committee Goes On Record in Support
FAVOR OLD DIAMOND
No Games During Hours of School, Agreement

Expressing themselves as being in accord with the plan of the Port Arthur Athletic association to convert a portion of Lake Shore park into an athletic field, the "sports and attractions committee" of the Chamber of Commerce went on record last night during a meeting held in the Realty building to support the movement to lease the grounds to the association.

The meeting of the committee held last night was the first to have been held this year.

Discussion of the proposed lease on Lake Shore grounds, which will go to the ballot tomorrow to be threshed out finally by the voters of the city, occupied the greater part of the committee's meeting.

The question was brought up to suggest the most favorable location for an athletic field, and whether or not the committee should endorse the location to be voted upon tomorrow.

After discussing that point both "pro and con," it was decided that since Lake Shore diamond has been used for the purpose of playing both baseball and football games for the past 12 or 15 years, and that since no property owners live on three sides of the site, and in view of the fact that none knew of a better, or more suitable site that can be secured, the committee placed themselves on record as being in favor of and supporting the movement of leasing the grounds mentioned to the Port Arthur Athletic association.

No School Hour Games
It was brought out during the discussion that the promoters of the association were in favor of making an agreement that no games would be played during school hours, nor none at any other time should they conflict or interfere with school work in any manner.

THEY'RE GETTING LOST HERE NOW
He rented a room with a trundle bed and closed his eyes to rest. And when he got up and wandered around.

He couldn't find his "nest." Port Arthur is growing.

In fact, it's getting to be such a big city that one can get lost right here in town.

This was revealed, much to the surprise of the veterans of the city who have watched its growth with approving eyes, when W. Hebert, hailing from Jennings, La., "got lost" Sunday night.

Hebert is still lost. So is his handbag.

This is the way it happened: The Louisiana came here Sunday night to go to work. He went down Procter, turned off a block in some direction, and then went in another direction, he says, and finally found a room where he could quarter for the night. Next day he got up and started out to the Gulf Refinery looking for employment.

When he came back to town, he couldn't recall which way he had gone, nor which was the way back to his room.

He hasn't found out yet, either, he says, and he'd like to know because his handbag, with all his "belongings" are in the room he left.

UNKNOWN NEGRESS SAVES LIFE OF WHITE
DALLAS, March 27.—No trace could be found today of the unknown negro woman who rushed into a burning home here yesterday and brought out Mrs. M. A. Stone, 80, probably saving the latter's life as she was unable to walk. Immediately after effecting the rescue, the woman disappeared.

EN ROUTE WITH STOKES-BURY MITCHELL PARTY, Baltimore, March 27.—In the seclusion of his private car, John Kearsley Mitchell, Philadelphia millionaire, today explained to his wife his relations with Miss Dorothy Kijag, murdered New York model.

Just what Mitchell, the mysterious "Mr. Marshall" in the case, told his wife, a daughter of the aristocratic Stokesbury family of Philadelphia, was not revealed as alert private detectives and railroad police continued to keep newspapermen and photographers at a safe distance from the entrance to the private car as the train sped northward.

It was learned from trainmen that the private car would be carried to Philadelphia, thus indicating that the Mitchell-Stokesbury party would go direct to their homes there and not stop at the Brooks estate near Baltimore.

Mrs. Mitchell is standing by her husband and publicly declaring she believes him innocent of any blame in the case.

The two, with Mrs. Mitchell's father, E. T. Stokesbury, are understood to have gone into a "family conference" as soon as Mr. Mitchell boarded the train at Washington.

With Mrs. Mitchell also were her two children. The Stokesbury private car, which brought the party up from Florida, was transferred at Washington from the Atlantic coast line to the Baltimore and Ohio. During the transfer, Mitchell, who was supposed to have driven to Philadelphia by motor last night from Philadelphia, boarded it while the heavy guard kept reporters and a curious throng away.

MAY HOLD CITY RUN OFF MAY 15

Wistner to Name Dates for New City Officers

Dates the new city officers are to take office, and which will be embodied in amendments to the city charter fixing a permanent time, are to be suggested to the city commissioners today by City Attorney V. J. Wistner.

Attorney Wistner was authorized to consider the most logical dates yesterday, when, after a short discussion, the commission agreed to let the matter rest in his hands, and his recommendations brought back to them this afternoon.

It was said in the discussions yesterday that with the election date set for May 15, if the votes are canvassed on the following Sunday, a run-off primary, if one is necessary, can be held on May 15.

No definite action was taken on setting the date for necessary run-offs, and the matter probably will be discussed again this afternoon.

The dates to be decided upon for the new officers to take the helm of city affairs, after their election, probably will be fixed with reference to some certain day in the week, in order that in future campaigns the time for the same event always will fall on the same date.

DENVER JURY STILL OUT IN BUNCO CASE
DENVER, Colo., March 27.—The jury deliberating the fate of 20 alleged confidence men charged with conspiracy to conduct a confidence game, has been out since Saturday morning. Rumors early today predicted that the twelve men were divided nine to three and it appeared that a hopeless deadlock existed.

AMARILLO HOTEL FIRE CAUSES $50,000 LOSS
AMARILLO, Texas, March 27.—Damage estimated at $50,000 was caused by fire which swept the Amarillo hotel here last night. The blaze started by an explosion in the furnace rooms.

54 ARRIVE HERE FROM SHERMAN
More Boilermakers Take Employment With Gulf

Port Arthur's population was boosted by the arrival of 54 additional men here Monday morning, all of whom are to be employed by the Gulf company, it is understood.

The men arrived here during the forenoon and formed a long line on Procter street and other parts of the city in quest of rooming quarters. This was heard this morning from the local Boilermakers' Union that all the new men are boilermakers, and members of the national organization of boilermakers. They probably will become affiliated with the local union immediately.

POSSE OF 150 CREEP ON GANG

ENTRENCHED IN HILLS
Bombs to Be Used to Drive Them Out

TULSA, Okla., March 27.—A battle plane piloted by D.A. McIntyre, chief of the Tulsa aerial police, and Robert Maher, newspaper reporter, a former world war machine gunner, has hopped off here for the scene of the battle between five desperate bank robbers, entrenched in the hills four miles west of Mannford, where they robbed the bank there yesterday afternoon and escaped unhurt down Main street under fire of the town's police.

A posse of 150 or more grim Oklahomans are creeping up inch by inch upon the alleged Al Spencer and his gang of outlaws. The battle ground is 35 miles straight west of Tulsa.

After one of the bandits had been killed late yesterday and another captured, three confederates, reinforced the desperadoes last night under cover of darkness, according to possemen, and the battle started up with renewed vigor at dawn this morning, and is now in full progress.

Gun Shot From Hand
Rider Bruner, Creek county deputy's revolver, was shot from his hand but none of the possemen have been wounded.

The airplane with a machine gun mounted in her cockpit and also loaded with bombs is expected to drive the bandits out from their stronghold.

Original plans called for Music Week to be ushered in next Sunday with special Easter music in all of the churches; but owing to the chautauqua dates conflicting during next week with the Music Week plans, the opening dates for the 1933 Music Week is Thursday night, Miss Hortense Smith, chairman of the music week committee, announced.

ALLEN REFUSED

Refusal of Model Commission Work, Says Allen

The duties of the postmaster and the city garbage department, according to an opinion rendered in a decision rendered Monday afternoon by City Attorney V. J. Wisner, are not to be added.

The subject was discussed in open session when Postmaster F. N. Allen inquired whether he should be added to the Model Commission. Allen indicated that he has been consulted recently by numerous Model Commission residents concerning whether his work extends to that of Port Arthur, now that it has been voted a part of the city.

The question was referred to Attorney Wisner, who said that it would be his opinion that the Model Commission residents are entitled to all the protections any other portion of the city receives.

In this connection, Postmaster Allen indicated that this would give him much more additional work to do, and that he would need an assistant. He asked the commission whether he might have one at this time, but was informed that in view of the fact that the council has only the fact of his salary in the yearly budget, and not made provision for any other expense in his department, that he would have to conduct the work alone until a little later.

Erwin Muzzled would not do so now if there was any question.

"I have put off accepting a better position for some time on this account, but since work has reached the point now where it is necessary that I devote my entire time to it."

"I wish to take this opportunity to express my thanks to the people of Port Arthur for the many courtesies extended to me, and especially to the superintendents and men who have helped in no small way to put over the construction program and routine work of this department."

Not Given Free Hand
"When I accepted this position here I was given to understand that I would be given a free hand to run the department with the commission, but this condition did not prevail, and I found that the commission of public property and improvements insisted on dictating as to who should be hired and fired, and in many ways hampering the operation of this department under this policy, which is evidenced by the following note received by one of the foremen during the construction of the water works extension:

"Give this man work—I mean work—if you have nothing for him to do, get a small boy and let him hold that down. When I give order for a party to go to work, I don't want them sent back to me. (Signed) E. J. Wade."

"Because this and the commission's statement that there was lack of cooperation in the department," the letter continues, "we have been able to accomplish a great deal in the first place, it was through my efforts that Nangle, Whit & Rollins relinquished their contract covering 2 1-2 per cent on water works extensions, or $125,000; that through orders of the commission I was directed to install the water mains by city forces, and on the completion of 10 miles, which were supposed to have cost $125,000, we had $40,000 left, out of which a 2,000-gallon per minute water works pump, together with a 100 h. p. motor was installed at Gilliam Circle pumping plant, and four miles additional water mains were purchased, which are now being installed; 20 additional fire hydrants were purchased, together with necessary piping and connections, and with the mains of the business district, which is completed, there will probably still be a small surplus in the treasury out of the bond issue."

Budget Cuts
"After two very heavy cuts were made in the budget in the departments under the city engineer, we have stayed within our budget allowance, and have maintained the streets and drainage in as good shape as they were the previous year when the budget appropriations were exceeded."

"I had hoped to see the final completion of the sanitary sewer system, as well as the Pleasant Pier bridge, before it became necessary for me to take up my new duties, but these jobs are now all nearing completion within the near future."

"I would like to call your attention to the increasing amount of drainage reaching the central drainage plant as the built-up areas extend over the present drainage area, and the recent addition to the city of Model Addition makes it very necessary that additional pumping equipment be installed at the central plant, the next commission should go into this matter thoroughly and make the necessary improvements for this additional equipment without delay, or else will have a flooded condition throughout the lower levels of the city during considerable rains."

Recommendations
"Should a bond issue be called for storm sewer on Shoreport avenue," the communication concludes, "from Lake Shore drive to Thomas Boulevard, provision should be made for a storm sewer along Lake Shore drive

CONVICTS NEGRO IN SIX MINUTES

Jury Gives Mitchell the Third Death Penalty

WACO, Texas, March 27.—Another death penalty started Roy Mitchell, much convicted mulatto, in the face today.

It took a jury only six minutes to find him guilty of the murder of Grady Skipworth, 39, who was killed and whose body was thrown over Lovett's Leap, near here, when he defended Naomi Bonham, 16, against the attacks of a negro, who assaulted the couple while they were out riding the night of November 20.

The alleged "black terror" had previously been sentenced to death for the murders of Mrs. Ethel Jacobs Deneamp, 21, and W. E. Holt, 45, slain on a lonely road January 19.

Wednesday, Mitchell goes to trial for the killing of W. P. Driskell, prominent cotton man, who was murdered with an ax in his back yard here last May.

He is to be tried Friday for the slaying of Harrell Holton, killed May 25, under circumstances similar to those under which Skipworth met his death.

'BOOB' TO SUE WIGGLY SHORTS

Action Against Stock Exchange Saunders' Plan

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 27.—Clarence Saunders, president of Pigg-Wiggly Stores, Inc., today reiterated that he will sue stockbrokers who are in default and that he will sue the New York Stock Exchange. Saunders, although accepting delivery of stock, said he would sue the stock exchange "that the court record may be made public principally for the American people to see the tricks and unethical methods of Wall Street."

He did not say when legal action would start but said all stock delivered would be closely checked as to when it was acquired by brokers making deliveries.

Reprisals Threatened By French in Ruhr

LONDON, March 27.—A new warning to Germany was issued today by the French military commander at Düsseldorf, according to dispatches received here.

German nationalist propaganda has resulted in various attacks on French troops; a proclamation stated.

Unless the attacks cease, French officials will be obliged to institute "severe measures," it added.

to Houston avenue to take care of the drainage, which is now installed at the head of the pavement on lower Houston, as the grades in this sewer are such that they cannot give free discharge into the canal. This line will also greatly improve the drainage of Proctor to Lake Shore between Shoreport and Houston avenue."

It is understood Engineer Erwin will superintend a $2,000,000 improvement program for the city of Beaumont.

Arrested Hubby Tells Wife He's Just Going To a Picture Show

Detectives Cowen and Sinitiere have found a new name for the police department.

They found it last night in the 1500 block on San Antonio avenue.

Arriving in that vicinity in quest of booze reported to be prevalent in the neighborhood, they discovered a dice game in full swing.

"We went in," the detective asserted, "and arrested five of them. When we started away, the lady of the house stuck her head out the door and asked her husband, who was in the crowd, where he was going."

"Just to the picture show," he replied.

"That's a funny name for a police station, isn't it?" Cowen concluded.

Stock Law to Go in Effect in 30 Days

A proclamation declaring the stock law effective in Proctor 2 in 30 days was issued Monday by County Judge B. H. Johnson.

This action followed the canvass of the election returns by the county commissioners' court when it was found that the election had carried in favor of enforcing the stock laws by 228 votes.

A total of 930 votes were cast in the election, and of these 684 were in favor of enforcing the stock laws and 246 against it.

REED TO AID IN CLEANUP PLANS

Move Not to Start Until Drier Weather

Plans for the cleanup and paintup campaign being fostered by Mayor J. P. Logan and the city council will be worked out in detail by Dr. Pat Reed, city health officer, and officials of the city sanitary department, it was brought out yesterday afternoon during the regular meeting of the city commission.

The campaign, it was revealed following discussions relative to its nature, will probably not be started until the streets and lots have dried considerably.

Dr. Reed, when called upon yesterday to express his opinion in the matter, indicated that "we should wait until it dries up more before starting the campaign."

Mayor Logan intimated that it is his desire to have all the alleyways in the business area especially cleaned and he took occasion to call attention to the fact that they are conspicuous at the present time "for some of their filth."

All available trucks, wagons, and teams will be put to use in the campaign, it is understood, and Commissioner Wade will probably furnish additional trucks to assist in hauling away the trash.

amples the enthusiasm shown by Groves in promoting and developing every enterprise that would enlarge Port Arthur's trade territory, friends said. Another of his hobbies was encouraging truck farming near Port Arthur.

On the death of Woodworth, Groves was visited by numerous newspaper representatives, and with his ever-present smile, he went back over the pages of his life he and "Home," as he referred to the banker, had written together. Of the prominent Port Arthurians, whose death under similar circumstances occurred last Friday, Groves expressed the most profound friendship.

No Funeral Arrangements
Surviving the deceased are his widow, formerly Miss Olive Butler, to whom he was married in Houston 21 years ago; a sister, Mrs. J. B. Cook, of Nederland; and the nephew, Asa B. Groves, of Madison, Wisconsin. J. B. Cook, Groves' brother-in-law, was with him when the end came, having

Born in Wisconsin

Asa B. Groves, of Madison, Wis., son of the late John W. Groves, visited his uncle in Port Arthur several weeks ago. "The boy, who is now 32 years old, enjoyed his visit here immensely, and our friends (called us 'Little Asa and Big Asa' while he was visiting me," Groves told friends a day or two ago.

Since the Port Arthur-Port Neches bus line was started in operation last spring, Groves has worked constantly to get the necessary road work done so that the buses could be routed through the Groves Pecon division, where between 50 and 100 families would receive transportation service to Port Arthur.

His efforts were rewarded just a few days ago when the announcement was made by County Commissioner Charles W. Hughes that work of shelling the road through the Groves division was underway. Not only this road but improvement work on other country roads leading into Port Arthur was closely watched by Groves.

Good Roads Advocated

He made a trip down the La Belle road last fall in company with his friend, Romie H. Woodworth, and made a number of observations on the road work he saw going on and how the neighborhood along the roads could furnish Port Arthur with considerable trade when the improvement work was completed.

With several prominent businessmen he made a trip across Lake Sabine last fall to Johnson's Bayou, where the party spent three days, and came back enthused over the oil development projects underway there.

Port Arthur, the city beautiful, the city of the future, of industries, of big enterprises, of ships and commerce—that was the vision of Asa B. Groves, for the nation's third port.

In this city he had the greatest faith. In Port Arthur he foresaw the developments that have come and those that are to follow. Groves often pronounced his faith that Port Arthur was to become the mecca of the Texas southland.

These are only a few of the ex-

Grapefruit or Orange

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
Of Columbia University

To drink orange juice, or eat half a grapefruit is almost a habit with many people today. The baby must have orange juice, and the tired business man drinks it at soda fountains. All because it helps to cleanse the system, regulates the bowels, contains the needed vitamins, and tastes good.

Grapefruit has not been used by the people of this country for so many years. Twenty-five years ago only occasionally was it found in the markets of the east and north, and it was called Shaddock. In the West Indies and far south the name Shaddock was used in the early part of the eighteenth century. Captain Shaddock brought the fruit to America.

Grapefruit contains quinine, and is a tonic.

Both oranges and grapefruit are perhaps best eaten with sugar or

Watercress Soup

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
Of Columbia University

To make cream of watercress soup: Cook two bunches or one quart of finely chopped watercress in a quarter of a cup of butter for 10 minutes, taking care that the butter does not brown.

Add three cups of water or veal stock, a medium-sized onion, sliced, a bit of bay leaf, a teaspoon each of salt and sugar, and a quarter of a cup of raw rice, well mashed.

Cook for 30 minutes after it begins to boil, keeping the kettle closely covered.

Strain, rubbing every particle of cross and rice through the strainer. Add a pint of rich milk, bring to the boiling point, season to taste and serve.

Orange Layer Cake

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
Of Columbia University

Oranges are not only appealing for their refreshing quality, but their tastiness and flavor make them especially desirable in baking. Orange cake, for this reason, should make a delightful dessert.

Melt one-fourth cup of butter, and a cup of sugar, then add two well-beaten eggs, and beat the mixture thoroughly. Sift one and one-half cups of flour with two teaspoons of baking powder and add it alternately with one-half cup of milk to the batter, eggs and sugar. Flavor with one-half teaspoon of vanilla, turn into two round or square layer cake tins which have been well buttered. Bake 20 minutes.

Recipes for the orange filling, to be placed between the layers and the orange icing, follow:

Orange Filling
1-2 cup sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 egg
1 tablespoon butter

Grated rind of one orange. Mix all together, and cook over water 15 minutes. Cool before spreading.

Orange Frosting
1 tablespoon orange juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 egg, yolk

Confectioner's sugar to make mixture stiff enough to spread.

After cake is frosted, place sections of orange on top, and cut between the sections.

Orange Cream
BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
Of Columbia University

Strawberry preserves on orange cream makes a delicious dish for afternoon teas or dessert at dinners. To make the orange cream, dissolve one and one-half cups of sugar, or enough to sweeten, in two cups of orange juice. Add two cups of cream, thin or medium, a few grains of salt, and flavor, using three measures of ice to one of salt.

Serve the cream in orange skins which have been washed and chilled. Or a pretty method of serving is as follows:

In a sherbet glass put two or three sections of orange and a little powdered sugar. Over this fill the glass with the cream. Garnish the top with orange sections, free from skin and seed, or strawberry preserves.

Grapefruit Salad
BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
Of Columbia University

Separate sections of two large or three small grapefruit free from skin and seeds. Chill, wash and separate leaves of one head of lettuce and cut two pimientos into strips. Mash one cream cheese with a fork, add six tablespoons of oil, two tablespoons lemon juice, one-half teaspoon paprika and one tablespoon sugar, and mix to the consistency of a thin mayonnaise.

Arrange lettuce leaves in a salad dish, fill center with grapefruit, cover with the cream cheese dressing and garnish with the peppers.

THREE-PIECE COSTUMES
A smart Paris designer is using waists of floral embroidery on the pockets and sleeves of the frocks he creates, then the same design appears in the lining of the accompanying jacket.

NARROWER BRACELETS
Narrow bracelets, to be worn above the elbow, are very fashionable with sleeveless frocks. With gowns of the old-fashioned type, girls are wearing black ribbons tied in bows about the wrist.

FOR SPORT WEAR
Very stunning sport frocks in shades of orange, blue, rose or yellow are completely covered with embroidery in white silk. Others have figures in white leather applied over their surfaces.

YOU AND I

CONTAGIOUS
The British king, recognizing the growing power of labor, has been trying to get much luck to get labor's political leaders to attend some of his social functions. Most of the comment has been about the king's attitude toward the labor movement. It indicates a concession by royalty.

More important would be the effect on the labor leaders. Social contact with royalty would bank some of their fires. Let them hobnob with the king a few times and they'd begin a conservative attitude.

O. Henry wrote a story about a mollycoddle who, by association with a tough kid, made his rough playmate a mollycoddle. In the end, the original mollycoddle had absorbed tough qualities. They'd merely changed places.

JEALOUSY
Jealousy is a mighty force in making the world progress. It is the average radical merely jealous of what some one else has, either in the way of wealth or power.

Give a million dollars to a political fire eater, and after a few heated flurries of flame you'll probably find him calmed down. Power, election to office—usually has a similar effect in making radicals conservative, though they go ahead shadow-boxing for effect. More effective, as a fire extinguisher, to give a radical a responsible public job than to lock him in jail.

WAGES
Can a man be valuable enough to society really to "earn" a salary of $500,000 a year? They're debating this in England. The Socialists say, no. Lord Leverhulme—his the Henry Ford of England, though he makes soap instead of flivvers—says yes.

Leverhulme is right. For instance—If some one would invent a furnace that would prevent most of the heat escaping up through the chimney—a reward of $500,000 a year for him would not begin to cover his service. And it would be a paying investment for the public.

As far as humanity at large is concerned, one man can be worth more than a million others. Trouble is, the deserving man rarely gets the big reward.

AUTOS
Auto makers continue breaking all records. In January and February they made 145,708 more cars and trucks than in the first three months of any previous year. February output was 271,000 machines, or at a rate of more than three million a year.

Pedestrians will have to gear themselves up a trifle higher, with more to dodge. No relaxing until the flying machine takes the place of the auto. When it comes it'll come as fast as the radio craze.

MISTAKEN
French Ferguson, worker of original sin, writes from Montana that the old saying, "Feed a cold and starve a fever" originally was "Feed a cold and SPARE a fever." Also, the meaningless expression, "The goose hangs high" originally was "The goose HONKS high."

Call again, Ferguson. Much of our history and many of our generally accepted notions are as distorted as some of our old sayings.

RAILROADS
Railroads report 15,541 locomotives laid up for repairs. This is 21 per cent of all the engines owned by all the roads. The figure is getting chronic.

Maybe we're barking up the wrong tree when we talk of "war shortage" instead of "locomotive shortage." Motive power is the weakest point of railroad transportation.

LA FOLLETTE AND HIS LAW MAKERS

Wisconsin is a La Follette state. He is the absolute political master of the commonwealth. His lawmakers have decided to make schools of the states armories. They would abolish the national guard. They have repealed the eugenic law and there was not a dissenting vote in either house.

It was stated by one of the leaders that Wisconsin ministers were losing large sums of money as a direct result of the law which reduces the number of marriages performed in the state, while counties were losing additional amounts through a cut in the number of marriage licenses issued. One of the repealers said thousands of couples each year leave Wisconsin to get married.

Representative Edith Wilburns introduced an eugenic bill at the regular session of the Texas legislature. It enlisted many supporters but it did not get by. These Wisconsin law makers stand for the truth of history. All these books containing statements derogatory of the aims and accomplishments of revolutionary war leaders and of leaders in the war of 1812, generally used in schools throughout the states, are to be barred from Wisconsin by order of its law makers.

Senator Robert M. La Follette skated on thin ice during the world war but now eighty per cent of the voters of Wisconsin are behind him and his legislative program has the endorsement of all his followers. He is not only a power in the senate of the United States but he is the idol of his people at home.

This Wisconsin senator is looking forward. He may be a presidential candidate in 1924. He is closer to the farm labor producers and wage earners than any man in America unless it be Henry Ford.

SAVING THE SUCKERS

Now the investment bankers of United States of America are planning a campaign to provide a measure of protection for investors against fraudulent and worthless securities. They plan to educate the suckers.

They say that dependence upon the law, on fraud acts and blue sky laws to protect investors from crooks has been and can be only partly effective. How are they going to protect men of financial means who place their money on fake horse or foot races?

How are they going to protect those who are promised ten dollars for one in schemes which are without the pale of the law? It is said that the profits of crooks was more than a billion dollars in 1922. Every sucker hopes to get rich quick, and he hopes to become a millionaire in a day and he hopes to take down something for nothing.

SPEAKING OF COTTON

All Texans are interested in cotton. Final census figures for the season showed about 200,000 less than the department estimate in December. Adding linters 1922 crop is turning out to be 2,000,000 bales over that of 1921. Census figures show 9,729,000 bales of lint cotton ginned. To this will be added probably 550,000 bales of linters or a total of approximately 10,250,000 bales.

Secretary Henry Hester of the New Orleans cotton exchange, estimated the interior carry over on August first 1922, as 964,000 bales, or about 11,200,000 bales. Out of which 9,834,000 bales have already appeared in sight. The quantity still left to be marketed, plus port and interior stock of 1,465,000 bales, must supply domestic and foreign buyers for the mills of the world the balance of the season.

This is the smallest carry-over supply chronicled in many years. George B. Terrell, commissioner of the department of agriculture forecasts a Texas crop of 3,500,000 bales this year. It is all guess work. Those who are familiar with the habits of the boll weevil say that the heavy freezes of the winter months destroyed the pest.

However, there are many doubting Thomases. They look for the weevil to play havoc with the cotton crop in certain districts should a rainy season come.

NEW YORK CITY FARMS

New York City with its vast area of 300 square miles, still includes a good many farms, according to the last census. They number 800 in all, comprising about 20,000 acres.

But this number is less than half the number of farms in the city twenty years ago, says the Outlook. The value of the 800 farms is about $35,000,000 of which only about one-ninth is credited to buildings.

The Outlook says another generation will doubtless see the transformation of most of these farms into city lots. Owners of these farms will be the financial aristocrats in a sense a quarter of a century hence. People create land values and land values make millionaires.

HARDING'S PROGRAM

Revision of the transportation act and liberalization of the immigration laws are among the first matters which will be laid before congress when it meets in December, as part of the administrative legislative program. The tariff will not be touched and opposition will be offered to expected efforts to revise the tax laws.

This is the program of the administration. There is a presidential election coming. Now just why should the immigration laws be liberalized on the eve of the presidential election? Why should they be liberalized? Isn't it the policy of the republican leaders to keep the ports closed in order to shut out millions of aliens who desire to come to this favored land from the war-torn countries of Europe?

As a matter of course the steel kings and the coal barons of America, who are republicans almost to a man, are for the repeal of the immigration laws. They say there is a labor famine in America. They say that those who do the rough work must be brought from foreign lands as Americans refuse to handle the pick and shovel and when it comes to farm labor, it is impossible to induce Americans to handle the plow or the hoe. They prefer positions in the cities and towns where the white light-glow and life isn't drudgery.

Is the tariff a dead issue?

COMPENSATION FOR COMMISSIONERS

This is to remind Jones that the 38th legislature fixed the salaries of county commissioners, placing the compensation upon a basis of population. In counties under 20,000 population, the pay is fixed at $5 per day with a maximum of $1000 a year; for the larger counties, the rate is made a flat one as follows: in counties from 20,000 to 34,000 population $1200 a year; in counties from 34,000 to 50,000 population, $1800 a year; in counties from 50,000 to 100,000 population, $2400 a year; in counties from 100,000 to 150,000 population, $3,000 a year; and in counties of more than 150,000 population, $3,600 a year. This applies to the counties of Bexar, Dallas, Harris and Tarrant. Two years ago the county commissioners made a strenuous fight for increased compensation but their bill died on the calendar. This year, Representative Henry Sackett introduced a bill putting the compensation upon a basis of county valuations. Representatives from the smaller counties made a determined fight against the Sackett bill and demanded a basis of population instead of county valuations. They won.

LETTER FROM SYDNEY CARTON TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT
LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO SYDNEY CARTON

Nothing doing, old man: at least, nothing doing up to date, as far as the letters are concerned.

I could see that it would do no good even to mention them when I took Mademoiselle out to dinner the other night. She seemed to have forgotten there was such a thing as a love letter in all the world.

We talked you over pretty thoroughly.

The lady acknowledged she wished you well; had nothing against you; that for at least a year you had given her a very beautiful time and she hoped that your care was worthy of you.

Don't sneer, I think she meant it. She is a very clever girl, Jack. I almost succumbed to her charms myself.

In conversation, which is a mixture of English when she tries to be calm and French when her emotions become unimpulsed, is most fascinating.

Honestly, I do not think Paula Perier will give up those letters. However, I should not worry much about them for if she remains in this frame of mind she will never make you any trouble.

She may use them as a lever to pry you away from your wife occasionally, but the time may come when you will want a good excuse. Of course I understand your predicament, old chap. I'm sure you are wishing a thousand times that there were no letters of your floating around to be brought up against you.

I will stay here for a couple of days longer. Mademoiselle and I are going on a long motor ride this afternoon and dine at some quiet inn. Perhaps the Fates will be propitious. If so, I will bring your love missives when I come in a few days.

SYD.

So that little given has put it over you! I might have known that she could write an impressive old bachelor like you about her little finger.

If you are not successful in getting those letters tonight, wire me and I shall receive a very urgent call from my firm to return to Albany, and go and see the lady myself. I will get them if I have to choke them out of her.

Syd, I never will rest a moment comfortably, while she has them. You don't know Paula Perier. She can be the sweetest thing in all the world and she can be a selfish. At one time I thought she was rather fascinating as the helmsman, but now her claws are out of the velvet and seem quite formidable.

Oh, Syd, I have not done anything bad enough to lose the chance of being loved by the sweetest girl on earth, but I'm sure Leslie would never forgive me if she knew I had made such a fool of myself.

She should never meet me again, especially as I have lied like a son of a bitch to her and told her that I have never spoken real words of love to any other girl.

That isn't as great a falsehood as it looks on paper. I may have spoken the words that mean love, but I did not mean them, and the girl I told them to knew I didn't mean them, and she didn't mean the words of love she spoke to me in return. It was just a game, I tell you, Syd. Just a game, and I am sorry I ever learned it.

Oh boy, oh boy, I'm afraid I will be sorry if I do not get those letters in my possession.

JACK.

His Final Declaration

"And Jesus said, 'I am.' Mark 14:61, 62.

Read Mark 14:54-65.

"It is the open eyes looking out upon the world which Jesus has made new, that furnishes the testimony to the mission of Jesus which can never be destroyed."

MEDITATION: Do we believe the declaration of Jesus? He gave us the way to prove it true. "If any man will do his will, he shall know." Are we willing to prove him?

HYMN: My faith looks up to thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary, Savior divine!

Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt away, O let me from this day Be wholly thine!

PRAYER: Grant us, O Lord, in all our duties thy HELP, in all our perplexities thy COUNSEL, in all our dangers thy PROTECTION, in all our sorrows thy PEARCE, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Savior, Amen.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

SOME REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE AGAINST LAKE SHORE PARK BEING USED FOR A BASEBALL PARK:

1. The close proximity to the high school will disturb the morale of the pupils.

2. The traffic on this congested thoroughfare will endanger the lives of the school children.

3. A board fence with advertising thereon will be obnoxious and unsightly surroundings for our new $400,000 school building.

4. The park was dedicated to the city for public use and not for some private corporation to enrich its bank account.

5. Ten years hence this franchise will be worth $500,000 for which the city will receive a paltry $50,000.

6. Residents who purchased property in this vicinity and spent thousands of dollars did so with the understanding that the park could be used for no other than park purposes. It is just to force upon these citizens who have spent their money for improvements an unsightly board fence to be utilized for advertising purposes.

7. We have not asked the park commission for improvement of this park for the reason we thought that the citizens residing in other parts of the city should be taken care of in the way of water, sewer and street improvements, and that it would have been selflessness on our part to insist upon beautifying parks while other taxpayers were in the mud.

8. Go to the polls tomorrow and register your disapproval of this most gigantic get-rich-quick scheme fostered by some who realize that a baseball park at $50 per year lease means thousands of dollars to them and nothing to the common people except "pay as you enter."

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nutriment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate; then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities, which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad salts and take a tablespoon in a glass of water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will help prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys, thus causing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad salts is inexpensive, and is made from the juice of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant effervescent drink which usually helps make pimples disappear.—Adv.

BOILERMAKERS TO TAKE IN 75

Local 305 Shows Record Growth Here

Boilermakers of local No. 305 met tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Eagles hall, in an important business session, according to announcement issued yesterday afternoon by J. L. O'Neal, O'Neal promised "something special." In all probability a smoker will be held.

The local expects to take in approximately 75 additional members tonight at the meeting, it is understood, while at least that number of transfers from Cleburne, Fort Worth, Dallas and other Texas points will probably be brought up.

The new members and the transfers coming in are from the men who recently came to Port Arthur in answer to calls for additional skilled labor sent out by local industries.

The boilermaker's union here has grown by "leaps and bounds," so to speak, since the advent of these men. Over 50 were taken in at a meeting several weeks ago, and the additions tonight are expected to bring the rolls up to approximately 150 new names.

Excavations Started for Storm Sewer on Fifth

Excavations for the storm sewer on Fifth street were started early today at Shreveport avenue. Pipe for the sewer has been assembled along Fifth street from Shreveport to Stillwell boulevard, and construction forces will lay the sewer as fast as the excavations are made, engineers in charge report.

Because of the fact that several of the churches located on Fifth street are holding revival meetings this week, instructions have been given to keep the thoroughfare in the best shape possible under the conditions so that traffic will not have to be detained. A. P. Rollins, consulting engineer, said today.

Watch Your Child's Health

Recent tests conducted among school children disclosed an alarming percentage in deficient health. Physicians are warning their friends to watch child health carefully at this season. It is now definitely known that weak eyes, poor teeth, twisted bones and wasted frames are directly traceable to a deficiency disease. Not a deficiency of food, but lack of the vital elements the food should supply. Usually the first indication of approaching deficiency disease is loss of weight.

At the first sign of loss of weight, start your children on Ironized Yeast. It supplies the vitamins needed and will soon have the children in normal health. According to Dr. Atherton Sedell of the U. S. Public Health Service, Dr. W. H. Eddy of Columbia University and other eminent scientists, brewer's yeast is the richest source of vitamins. That is what Ironized Yeast is—a concentrated extract of brewer's yeast in union with the iron needed to enrich the blood.

A one-day treatment of Ironized Yeast costs only a dollar. Its use will make a wonderful improvement in your child—it will bring back normal weight, rosy cheeks, bright, snappy childhood. Get Ironized Yeast from your druggist on the positive guarantee that if it fails to do these things, your money will be refunded. Ironized Yeast Co., Atlanta, Ga. KING TUT MUMMY DOLLS TAKE PLACE WITH BUNNIES, CHICKS, AND EASTER FAVORS

NOT only has King Tut become a personage in the fashion world, but his influence is even being seen in decorative features and he is sharing the Easter spirit with the characteristic Easter emblems, bunnies and wee chicks and eggs.

A novelty feature introduced this year at one store, where favors abound, is a King Tut table where dolls, stained a rich brown and wound and wrapped to look like Egyptian mummies, share honors with rabbits and chicks.

Tulips and jonquils are the harbinger of spring; and are being used by hostesses as the ideal floral decoration for entertainments during the pre-Easter days.

Easter comes so early this year that few spring flowers are in bloom and those that have bloomed have been nipped by the late frost. Real spring flowers are, of course, the ideal decoration for the Easter table, but when they aren't available, or when they are limited in quantity, hostesses find many ways of helping out the general effect by resorting to artificial flowers.

A daisy, tulip or jonquil table may easily come out of the stationery counter, lovely enough to make the greenhouse jealous.

A combination of jonquils and violets give the unusual color combination of purple and yellow, daisies or jonquils the yellow and white sacred to Easter, or tulips the conventional pink table effect.

The tablecloth may be any one of the fancy figured papers, fringed or fluffed about the edges, or it may be the regular plain-toned paper with flowers from the figured variety casually applied over the surface. A floral centerpiece of one large flower, surrounded by smaller ones, with individual favor holders at each place, is one of the simplest arrangements. Naturally, the electric light shades and candleholders should be made to correspond.

Butterflies that come in cut-outs, as well as in printed papers, are most effective when used profusely on a table where real or artificial flowers in a low basket make the center piece.

For a children's table nothing is more in keeping with the occasion than the most of colored Easter eggs with small candy eggs at each place and the procession of bunnies and chicks.

Cup forms of varying sizes and shapes may be purchased and trimmed with ruffles of crepe paper and paper flowers, or in any way you please. Dolls of lollypops, with grotesque faces, corsage bouquets of colored candies arranged on lace paper, and peanut dolls with yarn hats are some novelties in favors.

MRS. W. L. Smith's home on Procter street was the scene of a most delightful affair Saturday evening when her daughter, Miss Eva Smith, entertained with an enjoyable time, the personal of guests including congenial friends and students from college for the holidays preceding the spring term.

The pink and white motif selected by the hostess to feature the hospitality was charmingly displayed in all details of the affair, and lovely spring blossoms of the pink and white hues gave floral beauty to the home. Programs were embodied in the pink and white design. Miss Emma Poole entertained the guests with an entertaining feature dance. Punch was served throughout the evening.

King George's Workers Included in the Strike Of 15,000 Farm Hands

LONDON, March 27.—More than 15,000 farm hands now are on strike in Norfolk county, according to today's tabulations. The strike, a protest against wage cuts, has seriously curtailed farm production, and great alarm is felt over a possible crop shortage.

The strikers, it is understood, declined to make any exception of the estate of King George, located at Sandringham, and walked out there just as in other places of lesser magnitude.

This may result in the royal family being without the usual milk supply from Sandringham, and the season's crop may be greatly delayed if not lost.

CRETONNE COATS
Cretonne coats are very smart with white linen or cotton skirts. They are effective when bound with solid colors or with cross-grain ribbon.

ORGANIC FLOWERS

Use of the corsage of artificial flowers continues. Some of the most attractive organic flowers have clusters of organic flowers in all colors. Wood flowers in bright colors are effective on the navy blue frock.

POURING HOT LIQUID
When filling a glass with hot liquid put a silver spoon in before pouring the liquid. This will temper the glass so it will not break.

TO KEEP FLANNEL SOFT
Repeated launderings frequently make flannel hard and shrunken. It may be restored to its former softness by soaking it in gasoline.

A Beautiful Complexion of Satin-Like Texture
The incomparable beauty of thousands of women—that smooth, satin-like skin texture so much admired—is the result of Nadinola Cream, which has proved itself for a quarter of a century, the standard bleaching and beautifying cream.

Scientists long ago discovered and combined in Nadinola Cream, elements which bleach the skin and remove tan, freckles, pimples and other discolorations. Of its own peculiar virtues, it rids the skin of impurities and leaves it smooth and beautiful. The 50c. package will remove mild cases, the $1.00 size more stubborn cases. Directions and guarantee in each package, at your toilet counter.

City to Pay Allen $3 Paid Boys Aiding Him Capture Loose Cattle

Poundmaster F. K. Allen will be reimbursed $3 for funds he paid small boys in catching cattle loose in a marsh in the negro section of the city, and a negro who owned the animals will not be required to pay this amount in addition to the pound fees assessed against cattle imprisoned in it.

This was the opinion of the city commission yesterday afternoon, following a discussion of the matter. The poundmaster informed them that he had paid small boys 50 cents a head for six cattle they had captured in a deep marsh. He wanted the commission's opinion of whether he should tax the negro this additional cost on his pound fees.

The council ruled that the city ordinance regulating the city pound fixed a definite tax for all cattle captured, and that no additional charges can be made.

Launching of a ship is surrounded by sailors with many superstitions. If the launching is a success, the ship goes to sea with few free of misgivings. A girl launches her social career when she makes her debut. If it be successful, her social career has received a most desirable impulse. Whether it's a complete success or a partial failure, depends more on her personal conduct than any other feature.

THE DEBUTANTE.
1: A debut may be made at a ball, afternoon tea with dancing, small dance, small tea without music or simply by issuance of her mother's visiting card with the daughter's engraved below her own.

2: At a ball each guest shakes hands with the debutante and she should receive as long as they continue to arrive.

3: The debutante's supper partner is one who has spoken for the privilege weeks or months in advance of the event.

4: The debutante must dance well or she had better stay away from balls or dances, and exploit her other abilities, such as being able to play a good hand at bridge or a good game of golf.

5: The debutante should remember that it's folly to try to do anything socially unless one can do it well.

TOMORROW: Etiquette of prohibition.

IT'S BAD MANNERS for a young woman ever to put her hand on a man, except in dancing or in taking the arm of a wedding partner or a dinner or supper partner.

FANS—THAT BASEBALL PUZZLE CONTEST ENDS SATURDAY NIGHT

Each baseball fan will be presented with two puzzles to the Exporters games April 8, by the News. The puzzles will be presented by the News with a couple of puzzles to all the City League games the same day.

Each puzzle today appears a baseball Diamond Puzzle. The puzzles have been appearing for over a week. Guess who the player whose portrait photograph appears today is, and write one interesting fact about him. Save your guesses until all of the puzzles have been published. Then mail your answers to the Sport Editor of the News. All answers must be in the News office not later than April 3. Correct answers to all the Diamond Puzzles will be printed by the News April 7, and the prize winners announced at that time. The next day the prizes—two season passes to all the Exporter games and two season passes to all the City League games—will be awarded.

The two season passes to the Exporter games will be awarded to the Port Arthur fan answering the most of the puzzles correctly. The two season passes to the City League games will be awarded to the Port Arthur fan answering the next highest number correctly.

It's not too late to get in the race; some answers have already been mailed in; others are waiting 'til April 3 to send them in at once.

Scratch our noodle right now and start guessing who these players, whose names you have spoken a thousand times or more, are. There's nothing hard about it; it's easy, and somebody is going to win a prize worth having. If you haven't been in the race, dig back in your copies of the News to Monday, March 19, and start working the puzzles out. If you don't have those copies, call at the News office and buy them. There are a few left.

one is going to be dropped from baseball. I don't think it will be Landis or Benton.

"During the past winter I have spent over a thousand dollars trying to clear the charges against me. Now, after being acquitted, I am again under fire.

"Baseball is my livelihood. If I am not allowed to continue, someone is going to pay the fare. If I am not fit to play with Cincinnati, I never should have been allowed to play with St. Paul.

"I'm going the limit, and believe me, something big is going to pop shortly.

All of which makes it seem that trouble is brewing in National League circles.

Speaker Says Indians Will be Stronger This Year Than He Dreamed

Billy Evans Finds Leader Routing Out Fast Squad to Jump into Big Show for Pennant Race When Season Opens

By BILLY EVANS
LAKE LAND, Fla., March 27.—"Well, how do they look to you?" was my greeting to Manager Tris Speaker of the Indians.

The players had just appeared on the field for morning practice and were tossing the ball around as a preliminary warm-up. The veteran manager of the Cleveland team hasn't inclined to be boastful, is slow to effulgence. I knew that his program for the year called for the rebuilding of his world champions of 1920. Imagine my surprise when he replied:

"Cleveland is going to see a good ball club this year. It is going to be far stronger than my wildest imagination ever pictured it. It's a team with a new spirit that is going to fight for every ball game. The boys have forgotten they ever won a pennant and a big series.

"Don't misunderstand me and get the impression I am figuring on a pennant. The big idea the coming season is to win ball games, that is what all the boys are thinking about.

"However, I am willing to go on record as to what I hope the boys will accomplish. I feel sure that the Indians will finish in the first division. When I say first division I mean fourth place. The Indians are a club in the first division. It is a club that is able to stock around fourth place it always has a chance to be second or third and often first place isn't far away. Holding down a berth in the first division is the goal at which the Cleveland club is shooting and I am positive the boys will deliver.

"I have some mighty good looking youngsters. I am sure several of them will help me. Pitching, of course, is a problem that remains to be solved, but on what the boys have showed me, I feel that the pitching staff will be capable of holding its own."

After watching Speaker's ball club in action through several practice sessions and a regular game, I am inclined to agree with Speaker's estimate of the team's possibilities.

Glenn Myatt is going to help the clubing end of the game. For years O'Neill has been the burden back of the bat, and when Steve was injured the club suffered. In Myatt, Steve will have a running partner capable of dividing the burden. And there is Luke Sewell. I will be greatly disappointed if he isn't one of the stars at the league in a few years.

At third, Walter Lutzke, the Kansas City recruit, will hold sway. Lutzke is a replica of Bill Bradley in looks, style and mannerisms. Incidentally, he seems to have the ability that made Bradley one of the greatest third suckers of all time.

The other recruit who is certain to start as a regular is Homer Summa, slated for right field. The best looking outfielder that has broken into the American League in years is the complacent Speaker pays him.

The Cleveland club can hit, Myatt, Summa and Lutzke will supply the much needed young blood to the lineup. If the Indians get their share of good pitching they are bound to be a dangerous factor in the race.

HUGGINS PICKS MEN
NEW ORLEANS, March 27.—Six rookies have been picked by Miller Huggins to start the season on the bench with the New York Yankees. Harry Hendricks, Henry Hines and O. D. Huggins has made no decision about pitchers.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 27.—When the New York Giants come to Austin Wednesday to tangle with the Austin Rangers their reception will be a warm one, according to present plans of Austin's four civic clubs.

The world's champions baseball team will be met at the station with automobiles and will be driven directly to the Driskill hotel for a light royal luncheon given by the civic clubs. Guy Collett is scheduled to make the welcoming address at the luncheon to the Giants. Ranger Manager A. Rankin Johnson will chirp some.

Also, then one Jawn J. McGraw pilot of the champs, will orate. And Hughie Jennings of the "Eee-Yah" fame, and Jawn's assistant, will speak.

Later the Capital city quartet is to jar loose with a few of its special selections.

After the luncheon the Giants will be shown the city of Austin and all its scenic beauty via the automobile route. When the time comes for the champs to jump into the scrapping Ranger nine that afternoon they will be driven to Ranger park.

DIAMOND PUZZLES NO. 9

Can you identify this baseball player? He is a real modern star, who jumped into the front ranks in only short year. Regarded as a valuable man one year, but not a great star, he came into his own the next season and is now one of the most talked about players in the game. His sudden rise to fame is largely the result of an incident of the brain. His overnight success was made possible by perfecting an unusual style, that was so entirely different that the opposition was much puzzled. There is no telling to what dizzy heights he would have ascended had he been with a championship ball club.

Another Puzzle Tomorrow.

GIANTS APPEAR AT STATE CITY
Banquet Feature of Game at Austin

AUSTIN, Texas, March 27.—When the New York Giants come to Austin Wednesday to tangle with the Austin Rangers their reception will be a warm one, according to present plans of Austin's four civic clubs.

The world's champions baseball team will be met at the station with automobiles and will be driven directly to the Driskill hotel for a light royal luncheon given by the civic clubs. Guy Collett is scheduled to make the welcoming address at the luncheon to the Giants. Ranger Manager A. Rankin Johnson will chirp some.

Also, then one Jawn J. McGraw pilot of the champs, will orate. And Hughie Jennings of the "Eee-Yah" fame, and Jawn's assistant, will speak.

Later the Capital city quartet is to jar loose with a few of its special selections.

After the luncheon the Giants will be shown the city of Austin and all its scenic beauty via the automobile route. When the time comes for the champs to jump into the scrapping Ranger nine that afternoon they will be driven to Ranger park.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

On it was a sign which said, "The Home of the Knick Knacks." The Twins walked on toward the Cut-Out Lady's house. They passed Milk Shade and Raspberry Pop and presently came to a cracker box shaped like a Noah's Ark.

On it was a sign which said, "The Home of the Knick Knacks." As Nancy and Nick approached, a knick-knack elephant came rushing out and after him came a knick-knack poodle dog.

"Give it back Give it back or I'll bit you," barked the poodle. "You stole my crumb. Come here and give it back." When the knick-knack elephant saw the Twins he rushed behind them. "Oh, hile me, please hile me," he cried. "Why don't you give him back his crumb, then?" asked Nancy sharply. "Can't," replied the elephant. "It's gone, I ate it."

Nancy felt sorry for the elephant and spread her skirt out in front of him. "Shoo!" she said to the knick-knack poodle, when he came rushing up barking like a—like a—barking like a poodle dog. "He hasn't got your crumb. He ate it." "Tell him I'll trade turns with him," whispered the elephant. "He says he'll trade turns with you," repeated Nancy. "Well, I don't like to trade turns," said the poodle. "Somebody's always trading turns with me, and I never get a bite. We eat the crumbs in the bottom of the box, the crumbs that break off our ears and tails and paws and stick-out places. And it was my turn to eat the next crumb. I was just about to get it when Mr. Elephant reached down with his long trunk and gobbled it up."

"Oh, oh," cried the elephant suddenly. "I've lost my tail. It's fallen off while I was running." "I'll go and find it," said the poodle dog in a more friendly voice. "And if I find it I'm going to eat it. Then we'll be even."

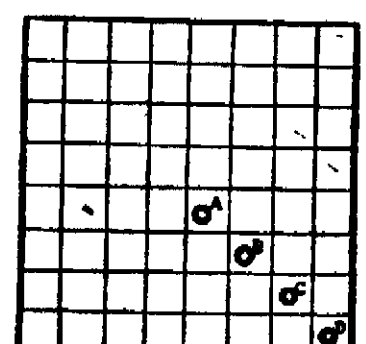

"You're welcome, I'm sure," said Nancy.

ELECTRA, Texas, March 27.—Miss Ruby Kinska, 20, was instantly killed when the car in which she was riding with Dick Borders of Electra ran off the highway and turned over in a ditch near here. Blinding headlights of another car is said to have caused Borders to leave the road. His right arm was broken.

A PUZZLE A DAY

Four checkers are set on a check-board as shown above. How can the board be divided into four parts, each part exactly the same, and each part including a square on which one of the checkers is placed?

Yesterday's answer: It was a simple matter for one of the soldiers, who was watching down the road, to see the other, who was looking up the road, yawn; because the two soldiers were standing face to face, and not back to back.
